

Deferment, suspension, or cancellation of study during enrolment policy and procedure (National Code Standard 9)

1. Policy

- 1.1 Techie International College only defers, suspends or cancels an international student's enrolment in limited exceptional circumstances as identified in this policy and procedure.
- 1.2 Techie International College provides information to international students on the grounds and process for deferring, suspending, and cancelling enrolment pre- and post-enrolment.
- 1.3 Techie International College informs international students of the impact of deferring, suspending, or cancelling their enrolment on their student visa.
- 1.4 If due to exceptional circumstances identified in item 1.5 of this policy and procedure Techie International College amends an international student's enrolment it will do so via PRISMS and record the reasons for the amendment.
- 1.5 Techie International College defers, suspends, or cancels a student's enrolment in the following exceptional circumstances:

Compassionate or compelling circumstances that are generally beyond the control of the student, and which have an impact upon their course progress or wellbeing. These could include, but are not limited to:

- serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes
- bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents
- major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel when this has impacted on the student's studies; or
- a traumatic experience which could include:
 - involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident
 - Witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime.
 - where the College was unable to offer a pre-requisite unit
 - inability to begin studying on the course commencement date due to delay in receiving a student visa
- If an approved deferral of commencement of studies or the suspension of study has been approved in compliance with the College's Deferment, suspension or cancellation of enrolment policy and procedure

The above circumstances are only some of examples of what may be considered compassionate or compelling circumstances. The CEO will use his professional judgment to assess each case on its individual merits.

When determining whether compassionate or compelling circumstances exist, the College considers documentary evidence provided to support the claim, and stores copies of these documents in the student's file.

Students may also have their enrolment suspended or cancelled by the College due to non-payment of fees, not achieving satisfactory course progress, academic misconduct, and misbehaviour or for breaching the College Code of Conduct.

- 1.6 Students have the right to appeal a decision by the College to defer, suspend or cancel their studies within 20 days of receiving notification of the Techie International College's intention.
- 1.7 The Techie International College does not notify DoE of a change to the enrolment status until the external complaints and appeals process is completed (if accessed). Cancellation of enrolment for misbehavior may lead to enrolments being cancelled after the outcome of the internal appeals process.
- 1.8 Reasons for deferment, suspension or cancelation of their course are recorded in the student's file.
- 1.9 Students must submit verifiable documentary evidence when applying to defer, suspend or cancel their enrolment.
- 1.10 The CEO is responsible for the implementation of this policy and procedure.
- 1.11 This policy will be implemented in compliance with the requirements of the National Code of Practice 2018 Standard 9.

Procedure
